Columbia accident board member visiting Marshall

Maj. Gen. Kenneth W. Hess with the Columbia Accident Investigation Board will be at the Marshall Center through Thursday. He also will be available at the Radisson Hotel, 6000 Memorial Parkway S.W. after 6 p.m. Wednesday if anyone has comments, facts, data or perspectives to offer the investigation board. To meet with Hess, please call the hotel to make an appointment, or 544-5577 for more information. The Columbia Accident Investigation Board also can be reached at 1-888-703-CAIB, or write to 16850 Saturn Lane, Houston, TX, 77058.

'Take Our Children to Work Day' T-shirt orders due by Thursday. For details, go to <http://inside.msfc.nasa.gov/CHILDREN> or see 'Inside Marshall'

For vehicle operation and parking rules while on Marshall Center property, see 'Inside Marshall'

Center Activities Building available for multiple uses

The Center Activities Building, Bldg. 4316, is available for a variety of uses, including briefings, meetings, receptions, seminars, parties, receptions and school or civic events. For more information, see "Inside Marshall."

Employees reminded not to cover official badges

Marshall team members should make sure that any extra badges are behind their official NASA or contractor badge. This includes the "I Think Safe Because" badges.

Nominations for Full-Time Study Program are open. For details, contact administrative officers
